5. Peter wanted so much to be identified with Jesus. He didn't want anything to be left undone.
6. Jesus said that He did it as an example of how they were to treat one another. They should be humble enough to serve one another.
7. Jesus predicted His betrayal so that after it happened, His disciples would know that He was Who He claimed to be, the Messiah.

9. As soon as Judas took the bread, Satan entered into him. He then left the supper and went to betray Jesus.
10. Because Judas was in charge of the money, the disciples thought that Jesus had sent him out to buy something or to give some money to the poor.
